HASH TRASH

It is a truth universally acknowledged that the hash trash never lies. What you are about to read either has happened, is happening now, or will happen at some time in the future. Or nearly, anyway.

RUN NO: 2050 DATE: 16/10 /2017 HARES: Heart Starter & Overproof
LOCATION: 33 Aquarius Street Kallangur

Fine food, fine friends but not so fine weather!

Another successful run was completed (by that we mean no one was swept away in causeway crossings or drowned). As was hoped for, we had excellent food and a challenging run and walk set by Bear Grylls Junior (aka known as Overproof). Our adventure started as soon as we headed out for the bike path next to the railway track and then into virgin territory. This was obviously a novelty for most of our hashers, the groups, both runners and walkers kept together as the weather was rather dark and stormy. Overproof organised a temporary reprieve from torrential downpours with the rain gods so only our boots were wet from fighting our way through soggy bushland and multiple mini creeks. We passed under two railway bridges, mostly unscathed, (except for Fidel who had a problem with negotiating the 1 metre clearance), on our hands and knees following our feeble torch lights but eventually arrived back into Kallangur's version of civilisation.

Run Report:

Fig Jam informed us that the run was 5.66km, he had a complaint about not having sufficient traction control on the trail but I think he may need to consider changing his thongs for boots! He did give an honourable mention for the fact that we had an hour without rain, which is amazing considering the week we have just had and that Fig Jam had something nice to say. The score 3 and half out of 10.

Fidel was called upon to do the walk report, he didn't mention many details, probably a bit foggy due to concussion from the low flying bridges. Score something like 1 out of 100

There was no Letterbox report, but a few intrepid mini walkers did a quick foray out to Dohles Rocks road. They were most impressed with the waterproof arrows but didn't manage to score.

Charges:

Small Appendage – this has been in Pick Pocket's safe hands but has now been passed on to Heart Starter for her observation skills. Apparently she only just noticed Pick Pocket has been wearing a hash shirt, he swears (frequently) that he has been wearing a hash shirt for weeks. Song – She's the Woman who

No other awards were present as the awardees were too wussy to attend or had other excuses like being overseas, being at work, or being so so sweet they would probably melt in the rain etc. Pounda probably is forgiven but will be given a big down down due to the fact he gets paid to do a month of camping and touring the sights.

Wrong Way was charged for going the wrong way and arriving late
Song Here's to sister hasher

Boxy charged Overproof for whinging about bra issues.. Boxy never has issues with his bra or anyone elses.
Song – Take it in your tits Mrs Murphy

Ten Fingers got the last charge of the night but declined due to the fact he was driving Doreen's car and he would be killed if he damaged it in any way. Fidel took the charge. Song – You'll never know how

Returnees – Fidel, Generic, Pith Head Song – O where o where was you last week

A big thank you was put out there for the hard workers for the camping weekend. It was slightly amusing to see Fig Jam and others with their shower bags walking up to the toilet block. No showers there but there was a bucket of sawdust if you felt the need to scrub off the dirt. Our hashers were very helpful with their advice to the numerous groups of backpackers that arrived. Fakarwee enlightened some Danish travellers to the joy of mosquito coils, apparently not known in Denmark. Boxy was on standby should the young German girls need assistance.

The giant tarp and barbecue supplied by Chunda, the excellent cheffing by Cheesy, the salads by Sherbert, the nibbles by Flower, the desserts by Heart Starter, lights by Boxy. We were especially appreciative of the firewood contributions by Spotty and others. We had an amazing fire pit even in the pouring rain.

Song –They ought to be publicly pissed on
