HASH TRASH

It is a truth universally acknowledged that the hash trash never lies. What you are about to read either has happened, is happening now, or will happen at some time in the future. Or nearly, anyway.

Run 2137 20th May 2019 Phantom Farter Herston

True to the nature of the Phantom our run was mysteriously changed to a new location at the last minute. Only those who actually check their emails knew that we were now at the Phantom's under construction hideout. Nonetheless a few of us managed to use both the internet and GPS and locate the published address.

Phantom did us proud and put on awesome food, the booze excellent and of course an awesome virgin north side run. To and From was a little critical in that the arrows were sometimes not laid down until we were actually lost or past a point where direction onwards was important. A minor technical issue surely, the excuse being torrential rain and being young enough to have to go to full time work and not having time to reset the run. Criticism of younger tax payers should not be tolerated.

It was duly noted that our song mistress again left us floundering. Fig Jam was overheard saying that her car was stricken down by FFL (French F*ing Logic), however numbers were increased by the attendance and scrutiny of crutches by Dizzy (a rather large kelpie sheep dog cross).

Once runners (3) and walkers had returned, out came the cocktail frankfurts, known to Queenslanders as “Little boys” and the Cardinal Pell “jokes” about time to dip the sausage in the sauce! Shocking!! There was also some reference to To & From being strapped to a “ho”, perhaps I misheard as this seems entirely unlikely. The circle was called and the age-old tradition of multiple tied together mugs was continued (at least two weeks now). Floater was asked where he had been the last few months and also the run number. He said he couldn’t even remember where he was yesterday, so no chance. Dog’s apology for non attendance was a piss poor excuse of picking up his partner from hospital.

A group down down was given to all the hashers wearing election colours. Shredder and Sherbert were wearing red for Labour, Boxy was either wearing orange for Pauline Hanson or yellow for Clive or maybe it was both ways after all he is a former Hammersley boy. Someone charged Shredder for having ice cold beer.
