HASH TRASH

It is a truth universally acknowledged that the hash trash never lies. What you are about to read either has happened, is happening now, or will happen at some time in the future. Or nearly, anyway.

Run 2138 27th May 2019 Yakity Yak Lawnton

Despite the fact that Yakity Yak set trail throughout Lawnton, a much-visited hashing area thanks to our beloved Spot family, hashers still managed to take about an hour and a half to return home. Apparently people lost arrows about 6km out. Much whinging was heard about fat bastards and chip gluttony, however a few more experienced hashers just smiled and gloated at their own obvious superior hashing skills. The proof is in the pudding or in this case the empty chip bowls. Scrubber was asked to score the run and he said minus 1800 out of ten due to the fact that the walkers found trail home.

Yakity Yak has unwittingly unleashed knowledge as to her superior hashing venue, complete with adequate space for campers and caravans, a large undercover deck and the added bonus of a fire pit. Not only geography in her favour, her kitchen skills were also much appreciated.

Many charges were consumed. Ten Fingers new hair cut was obviously a tribute to Boxy. Ten won't need to get a new haircut for at least ten pension payments. Piccaninni returned seeing that his chauffeur was making a quick pit stop in Brisbane before embarking on the next overseas adventure. Tail announced the current run numbers after many weeks of random trainee hash cashers announcing "your total is one more than last week".

Ten Fingers was charged by Boxy for his exoskeleton. Tail was charged for announcing that no-one was getting past her passage! Scrubber made some totally insensitive and inappropriate remark about the big dick being returned in poor shape due to its usage by dyke women soccer players. I think that it was what was said. I may not have heard correctly as I was cringing at the time. Luckily I am much too innocent to understand what he is talking about!

Excitement is building for our 40th celebration and numbers are rising. Contact Sherbet if you are making a late rego.
