HASH TRASH

It is a truth universally acknowledged that the hash trash never lies. What you are about to read either has happened, is happening now, or will happen at some time in the future. Or nearly, anyway.

Run 2141 10 June 2019 in Larger Hillsville set by Killer

A sizable pack of 20 straggled into the Killer Garage ready for carnage. Cousin It made an unscheduled return to the pack. He immediately unloaded on the unfortunate Flower who replied that she DID slow down as she thought it looked like a Hasher on their way to the run. However, she explained that her initial thought was that it was Flasher and she was going to give him a lift; as it was some strange person she didn't recognise she quickly sped away.

As usual for any run in Hillsville the pack was out into the cold and up the first hill, followed by down the hill, followed by up the hill, followed by down the hill, followed by up the hill, followed by down the hill until at the beginning of the only flat spot encountered on the run, the "On Home" sign was spotted. Fortified in the knowledge that there was probably only a few hundred metres to go, the pack found a surge of energy and powered forward, ignoring the comments of the local Hillsville Hasher, Cousin It, that in fact it was at least 2 km back to the run start.

Our esteemed GM called the pack to order and Abbo's Hash Cash understudy Tail, called the run count. Ryvita was called to announce the Run Number ... 20140- immediately denounced by the GM. The hare was called to the circle to atone for his run. Generic said it was an excruciatingly hard letterbox run; 10 Fingers wailed about the distance from the "On Home" sign to the end and gave the Run a score of 3/10; Runner Simpleton said it was OK (?) 6/10, and Overproof (renamed Oven Proof temporarily at Bribie Island) said it was quite a good run.

Cousin It was called in to the circle to explain his prolonged absence - muttered for pathetic 3 minutes about work (yawn), his wife (yawn), his retirement plans (yawn); much sympathy was expressed by the Pack ...Bullshit, Bullshit, Bullshit. Simpleton also bored the Pack senseless with his excuse that he had actually been at a run 2 weeks previously, but this was actually the truth and corroborated by the Tireless and Hard Working stand in Hash Cash. Male Wrong Way has also returned and was questioned at length - his score for the run was 4.5/10. All in all the usual pathetic excuses.
