HASH TRASH

It is a truth universally acknowledged that the hash trash never lies. What you are about to read either has happened, is happening now, or will happen at some time in the future. Or nearly, anyway.

Sherbet's Run No. 2148 at Hidden World Playground was memorable for many reasons – not just the food:

1. In a moment of dyslexia the GM thought the run no. was 2184 (probably still recovering from his Thai massage).
2. Psycho arrived carrying his AK47 over his shoulder which we thought was a disturbing reference to his name, but it turned out to be his chair.
3. Two of our intrepid harriets (Generic and Vampire) got lost on the walk, decided to hitchhike and were picked up by the police – see police report extract below.

The GM asked the grumpiest runner to give the run report, so Shredder gave it 2 out of 10 because it was well marked with lots of Xs. We think these were probably kisses. As Psycho was no longer armed with his AK47 he was asked to give the walk report and described it as an amiable amble and gave it 9 out of 10.

Extract from the Fitzgibbon Police Report: Two youthful but slightly incapacitated women wearing obscene T-shirts were noticed hobbling suspiciously in a secluded area off Roghan Rd on Monday 29th July 2019. An off duty officer stopped to question them due to their confused and erratic signalling. She was unsure if they were two Tourette's sufferers or were flagging her car down. The two invalids claimed to be hash house harriers (the officer had never heard of such a thing but assumed it was something to do with drugs), who had lost their way and were trying to find their hash group. Hoping for an enormous drug bust, the officer offered to take the two women back to their drug den and the invalids happily got into her car. They were duly transported back to Hidden World Playground, where the disappointed officer deposited them at what was clearly some sort of seniors' convention.

Boxy reminded the two harriettes of the serial killers who use this as their modus operandi, ie getting their wives to pick up unsuspecting victims, however most of the hash group were just jealous that Vampire and Generic had the forethought to get a lift back.

Other Charges

Chargee/s	For
Psycho	Visitor – clearly a psycho because he thinks soccer is called 'football'.
Heartstarter	Couldn't come last week because she was "just chatting".
Smooth Ride	The only northside Harriette to get to 500 runs (other hashers who are 'old women' don't count).
Generic and Vampire	Hitchhiking and getting in the back of a stranger's car (who could have been the sister of Ivan Milat).
On Heat	The only Harriette drinking out of crystal. Should have been a reverse charge to Boxy because it was plastic crystal.
Shredder	350 runs. Shredder used this time to request a grog proxy for 5 weeks while he's on a course, and was nearly knocked down in the rush of volunteers. Flower offered to do cat's piss.
Smooth ride	Being too competitive for hash by getting to 500 runs – especially when she spends half the year overseas.
