HASH TRASH

It is a truth universally acknowledged that the hash trash never lies. What you are about to read either has happened, is happening now, or will happen at some time in the future. Or nearly, anyway.

As the Christmas party run was officially run no. 2166, Killer's run became 2167. Everyone is waiting with bated breath for the Christmas party trash which should be distributed sometime around September 2020 (based on the BNH3 memorable birthday bash held earlier in the year and which no-one can remember because the presumably 400 page trash hasn't yet been sent out by the GM).

Killer's Everton Hills run was almost as cold and mountainous as Picaninni's run from the week before. After a long-winded and largely ignored explanation by Killer, the pack set off in the usual disorganised rabble. Ten Fingers decided to stay with the letterbox contingent ie Smooth Ride, Generic and M. Stick who were engrossed in discussing their forthcoming Christmas activities. On their return to Killer's abode, they realised that they'd lost Ten Fingers somewhere along the way. They debated whether to go back and search for him but decided that since it was dark, it would be much better if Killer went out looking for him early the next day when the sun was up. They were relieved to see him return some time later (after the runners), although not looking quite as frisky as he had on departure.

Picaninni gave the run report and alleged that Killer's attempts to replicate Picaninni's superior run from the week before had failed, although it was a reasonable effort and he gave it 3 out of 50. Ten Fingers gave the walk report, and even though he'd set off on a letterbox walk and ended up doing a marathon, he gave it 8 out of 10.

Christmas Party report - Everyone agreed that the Christmas party had been an excellent hash event with great food and no shortage of drinks. The GM said he forgot to tell hashers they got the first 7 drinks free and it was $2 for each drink thereafter. Dog apparently owes hash cash $300.

AGPU - The GM suggested the BNH3 AGPU be held in March 2020. Many of the BNH3 grey nomads will be holidaying in March and April, so February was suggested as a possibility. Saturday 29th February 2020 coincides with Smooth Ride's official 17th birthday so could be an appropriate date. Further discussions will take place, although the hash trash will be ecstatic to handover her portfolio in January if that's a more suitable time for everyone.

Awards/Down Downs

Hash Award	Hasher	For
Hare	Killer	Setting a marathon walk just for Ten Fingers
Big Prick	Mammary Stick	For losing Ten Fingers on the letterbox walk. Anyone who is capable of getting lost on a letterbox walk clearly deserves a reverse charge, however M. Stick was in a kindly frame of mind and graciously accepted her award in the true spirit of hashmanship.
Small Prick	MIA
Dummy	Singapore Sling	The dummy has been reincarnated by Smooth Ride (with some generous donations) and was awarded to SS for showing off his food processing skills at the Christmas party. This must have become a hash tradition as Pounda has become famed for showing off his unique food processing skills at former Christmas parties.
Brush	MIA
Arse Saver	MIA
Grub Shirt	MIA - Chunder

Other Charges

Chargee/s	For
Shfrbet	Shfrbet's name tag was left at the GM's house which has identified that we've all been calling her the wrong name.
Flower	Yackety Yak found Flower's torch under a bush in her front yard. No one was sure what Flower had been doing there but she was elated at having her favourite light source returned.

Singapore Sling	SS has lost the Taj Mahal from the back of his truck although I believe Struck F*ck is not to be blamed for this.
Yackety Yak	Twinkle Toes award from the Christmas Party where she was seen receiving dance tuition from Struck F*ck.
Ned	Ten Fingers awarded Ned his mouldy jacket for reasons unknown. Ned was last seen heading towards Killer's neighbour's wheelie bin.
Smooth Ride	Facebook addiction award for posting photos the day after the Christmas party of the GM without his written consent, and where he could be seen by people he worked with. No hasher wants to be seen associating with other hashers by their workmates or employers, as this is certain to result in instant dismissal.
Yackety Yak	Was overheard by the GM to be discussing her "long one which works really well, even though it's really, really long". The GM was impressed until he discovered she was talking about her whupper snupper.
