HASH TRASH

It is a truth universally acknowledged that the hash trash never lies. What you are about to read either has happened, is happening now, or will happen at some time in the future. Or nearly, anyway.

Our favourite Dog has been keeping a very low profile of late thanks to the Department of Transport. While On Heat slaved over a hot stove, Dog greeted hashers on their arrival, doing a quick calculation to assess whether the weight bearing capacity of his deck was commensurate with the overall body mass index being supported. His calculations indicated that there was an inherent risk involved, but one that he was prepared to take. (A bit like the risk of driving at 80kph in a 60kph zone and hoping that there aren't any secret cameras around, and continuing to take the same said risk repeatedly, despite sound confirmation that the hidden cameras are in fact there.)

Being a risk taker, Dog has now overcome his latest hurdle of vehicle deprivation by buying an electric scooter. These are of course a magnet to the ladies, and On Heat has declared she 'won't be caught dead on that thing'. Rumour has it she hid when he arrived at the school to pick her up.

Simpleton did an engineering workplace health and safety assessment on Dog's deck, and declared it didn't meet Australian Standards or the required building codes necessary for such an erection. Hashers congratulated Dog once again on his defiance of Australian law and any regulations or legal obligations that the rest of the population has to abide by. Dog has recently purchased some mobile accommodation and it has now become clear that this is a back up for when his deck falls down and takes his house with it. We're all looking forward to seeing him scooting his mobile home to the AGPU.

He set the usual 10km run and walk, enjoyed only by the likes of Ned & Simpleton. Newly retired Cousin It has returned from his travels and expressed his disappointment in the lack of hills, giving the walk 6/300, which he then converted to 2/10, using the same maths used for calculating deck capacity. Simpleton enjoyed the run and gave it 8.75/10.

Awards/Down Downs

| Hash Award         | Hasher        | For   |
|--------------------|---------------|---|
| Hare               | Dog & On Heat | Setting the usual marathon  |
| Big Prick          | Cousin It     | Being geographically challenged   |
| Double Small Prick |               |   |
| Dummy              | Yackety Yak   | Complaining that the very desirable and much coveted grub shirt was “a revolting smelly thing”.   |
| Imposter Dummy     | Struck F*ck   | Boxy asked for someone to stand up if they thought the walk was too long. Struck took one for the team.   |
| Grub Shirt         | Overproof     | Yackety Yak was happy to get rid of the revolting smelly thing to Overproof for some “small thing” – a fact which was hotly denied by Heartstarter. |
| Bow Tie            | Ten Fingers   |   |

Other Charges

| Chargee/s           | For  |
|---------------------|--|
| Cousin It & On Heat | Returnees – Cousin It has been busy being retired which nobody wants to hear about, and has no more excuses for not attending hash. On Heat has been at home refusing to get on Dog’s scooter. |
| John and Pat        | Visitors from Canada. John was berated for being a wuss and complaining that -20 degrees in Edmonton was too cold.   |
| Picannini and Ned   | 500 and 400 runs respectively. Get a life.   |
| Dog                 | Building code violation (handrail on stairs) amongst other violations. Dog defended himself by claiming that all works met, and in fact exceeded, Indonesian International standards.          |
| John                | Being a supreme athlete and carrying B- on his shoulders for 300 metres.   |
| Cousin It           | Given the ‘Donald’ award for thinking he could educate the yanks in 5 weeks. Fortunately he didn’t   |

|                  |   |
|------------------|---|
|                  | come back with a hair awning and an orange complexion.  |
| Dog       | Leaving Dog sh*t on the run and allowing Abbo to walk in it.  |
| Tail      | Overachieving on a winery tour by drinking water the whole time. The concept of “dry February” is often misunderstood and actually refers to the consumption of only dry whites and dry reds. |
| Overproof | Left his stool at Cheesy’s. Boxy offered to push it back in.  |
