HASH TRASH

It is a truth universally acknowledged that the hash trash never lies. What you are about to read either has happened, is happening now, or will happen at some time in the future. Or nearly, anyway.

A small, attractive but hardy crew amassed in Ferny Hills for Pincaninni's short and flat trail. With our numbers safely under 500 members, we set off. Checks were a plenty and a couple sneaky False Trails awaited. But even with inside knowledge, our illustrious hare led us the wrong path at a check, calling back Nokia who was checking the right path. With the Mt Everest climb abandoned, Pincaninni led us up Brisbane's closest alternative, leaving many searching for Sherpas to carry us up. After, all went searching for a much needed liquid sustenance.

After much a waiting in Pincaninni's man cave, it became apparent by the absence of bad jokes, 2 walkers were missing in action. Fidel and 10 Fingers, having decided they needed more exercise, decided to add a few extra loops in. After all the beer was finished and eskies empty, Abo and Pounder went searching for the pair. 10 Fingers claiming too few arrows, Abo claiming it was the best arrowed course in the history of hash.

Top points were awarded to the hare for the trail, only to lose some for the safe return of the absent pair.
