

Brisbane Covid Hash House Harriers

Run Report 2199

It took sooooo long to sign in and register with Aspley Dementia Leagues Club that On Heat & Dog gave up and went home. That's a shame because they missed out on some startling carpet patterns.

With dinners ordered we shuffled out to pay strict attention to Mormon Schtick's instructions. About to bust a blood vessel, Need had to add some extra instructions, hee hee! The first arrow was simply the finest arrow I'd seen all evening. The trail circled us around the mean streets of Aspley, the hashers watchful for street gangs and turf wars. No dog turds were disturbed during the walk and I was suitably impressed by the musical drain covers that chimed as each Hashlete skipped over them. For a change the Harriettes were grateful for a short one.

Back at the clubhouse Smooove Ride looked most comfortable in the airport lounge like surroundings. Structure F* & Sherbeaut seemed to have enjoyed an iintelc, intulict, interlluc, a brainy chat.

Our GM Boxy, looking delightful in her sequined Hash shirt and bald wig ushered us outside to enjoy the balmy night air and balmy cigarette smoke. The Hare Mammary Slick was duly anointed 'Hare of The Week' and scored a diatribe and 2.5pts from Fag Germ for the run. I awarded her 1,000,000,000pts for the musical trail. Re-Viter asked if she missed arrows and the hare replied "Nah, there were only three,"

With that, mid-circle, Roar Liver's curry was served, then Rib Eye's fish, then roasts and so on. The GM almost control! Young O B One (Kenobi) did well not to shiver in the cooling night air.

Vampire enjoyed some garlic-laden ravioli, ensuring she wouldn't get taken by um, a vampire.

Tale kept a look out for underage civilians as Flow-er, ahem, cleaned up the songs –

He's stupid, He's stupid, He's really ffff...very dumb.

O B One (Kenobi) gave Nerd the clown tie for stuffing up the run.

Next week's run is back at the Brighton Hotel, hare is Structure F****.

Just as we thought it was all over Fag Jam presented Ned with his long lost hat, inscribed with 'Ned's F H'.
