HASH TRASH

It is a truth universally acknowledged that the hash trash never lies. What you are about to read either has happened, is happening now, or will happen at some time in the future. Or nearly, anyway.

Sixteen brave hashers and harriets (hard to tell the difference in drag) frocked up and rocked up for the Red Dress Run – 2020 Local Edition. Notable absences were the sexually insecure lot who were too afraid to be seen in a dress, even for charity's sake. You know who you are.

On a long and winding trail that included hills and valleys, footpaths and parkways and not a few great views of lovely Brisvegas, we even managed to attract a few of the locals to go for a stroll with us. It is unknown as to whether they really knew what they were in for due to the fact that they were in town from Syria to learn how to speak English. Nonetheless, they seemed to enjoy the festivities.

Those who finished the course were treated to enough pizza to kill a small brown dog and the finest selection of libations in weeks. Someone must have tipped off the grog-master.

And that's all I have to say about that.
