HASH TRASH

It is a truth universally acknowledged that the hash trash never lies. What you are about to read either has happened, is happening now, or will happen at some time in the future. Or nearly, anyway.

Run 2233

A small but perfectly formed pack assembled at the Bridgman Downs country seat of the Flower. Comprising a few walking wounded as well as notable returnees the 5.6km trail, which was surprisingly well marked and even with some mysterious hieroglyphics (see later) meant that no normal person could get lost. On bike paths and pavement it wended its way in a loop and then down to the Albany Creek Shopping Centre, a route somewhat favoured by Flower and then through the 'burbs. Just when we thought all were back and the GM called the circle to order, it appeared that someone or two could indeed get lost. Yes, Ten Fingers had failed to negotiate robust markings and along with Singapore Sling caused us to hesitate for at least 10 seconds before getting the circle started. It proceeded along its merry course quickened by the thought of impending pizzas courtesy of the public holiday. Still, it was a convivial little circle made homely by the burning of some seasoned wood. All in all a pleasant public holiday affair.

- B1- while Figjam was being gallant and running with Heartstarter, B1 sailed off into the distance.
- Heartstarter- being her first run in ages, but refusing to do any checks
- Singapore Sling and Ten fingers- getting lost on trail and paraphrasing Oscar Wilde, 'to lose one hasher is unfortunate to lose two is sheer carelessness.'
- Bigfoot - a somewhat tardy hash trash, accompanied by Heartstarter
- Flower teasing the pack by promising Easter Eggs but forgetting that it was a public holiday so couldn't get them (that's a melange of two charges)
- B1- being propositioned by Flower at the Farkawee challenge, but claiming to have a headache.
- Silver Fox- premature Ejaculation with the 3 dicks
- Cheesy and Ten Fingers- usurping the GM and RA's authority respectively
