HASH TRASH

It is a truth universally acknowledged that the hash trash never lies. What you are about to read either has happened, is happening now, or will happen at some time in the future. Or nearly, anyway.

Run 2285c A funny thing happened on Labour Day- Wrong Way, Petrie Water Park

The last of the 4pm starts saw Wrong Way, substituting for the injured Chunda send us, well, the wrong way. The start of the run was delayed due to the absence of the hare. As Long Time Cumming stirred the pasta, the pack, including a brief appearance by the spots (G-Spot and Wet Spot), who subsequently disappeared thereby leaving the place spotless, waited patiently, and then impatiently for the return of the hare. It was not to be. As such, and thus showing a semblance of leadership, the GM delegated the directions to Long Time Cumming who unflappably, while continuing to stir pasta, gave her views on the run “Go that way.” Thus proving that harriettes too, like the male version, can multitask.

Off we, or more correctly I, trotted, and after a check, trotted further, and further, and further, only to find a back check after a km. Upon which time, and while standing perplexedly, the walkers had caught up. So, trotting back to the last check (another km), who should appear from the bushes, but Wrong Way, apparently having hidden from besuited council workers inspecting their domain that is the Petrie Dump. After this point, we weren’t able to get lost and eventually, a circumnavigation of some waterways and future USC parkland got us back to the water park for some festivities followed by several types of chilli con o sin carne.

Actually. an interesting parambulation, with some nice scenery, interspersed with a very long back check. I must remember that one the next time I want to annoy a pack of walkers. 😊

Scores on the Doors/ Walk Run reports

Long walker Dog -10/10

Runner – Sex Change -10/10 summarised as follows:

Combining a calamitous cluster-fudge with a kilometre of carefree carousing, the Machiavellian meander was not mitigated majorly by marginal meaningless markings. Moreover, the many mystified meanderers melted into monstrous machinations and cacaphonic caterwauling when the markless moonlit motorway finally appeared. The sullen setter secreted skilfully to stilt council interference stumbled out of the stygian sunset. A plethora of paper pieces pulled from pornographic pamphlets presaged the path through Petrie’s pile of poop. Pitifully, pecuniousness and parsimoniousness with the paper pieces prevailed, and the path purposelessly piddled into powder. Buoyed by the bright white glint of fresh farinacious flour, scribe and Struq successfully and stealthily stomped circlewards. An adventurous amble, agreeingly accepted.

Total score- -20/20<sup>1</sup>

Stand-in RA: Ryvita

Hash Flash- Tail

Virgins, Visitors, Returnees

Dangles- Doing his itinerant thing between here and Canberra

<sup>1</sup> Note to hashers: a low score is generally more acceptable than a higher one on the basis that if you haven’t annoyed some hashers then you haven’t done a good job.

Baby Titus- (not really his hash name, and somewhat larger than Titus, his sibling)

Charges

Flower and Tail- not bringing back any pineapples from their journey to Cutlery Hash in Yepoon

Smooth ride- overestimating the council provision of a generator

Ryvita- failing to come out in the (lack of) rain last week

Chunda and StruqFuq- walking wounded charges

Flower- something to do with a nude run in Yepoon

Wrong way- having to dodge Council workmen while setting run

Awards

Grub Shirt (I've forgotten what its really called)- From Titus to Chunda
