HASH TRASH

It is a truth universally acknowledged that the hash trash never lies. What you are about to read either has happened, is happening now, or will happen at some time in the future. Or nearly, anyway.

Run 2285 Lest we Forget (that it started at 4pm run) Jake the Peg/ Snakecharmer, Hamilton

*Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn
 At the going down of the sun and in the morning, we will remember them*

Leaden skies pregnant with precipitation presaged this pre-dark parambulation around the reclaimed area that is Hamilton NorthShore. A mix of overgrown and over-capitalised was on show and in the middle, the Old Shoreline (dog) park, complete with soft-leaf buffalo, verdant foliage and, on this afternoon, evening, 12 hashers strong and true.

Borrowing from their book of forgotten war venues, Jake and Snakecharmer took the small but perfectly-formed group through jungle-like foliage, through water-filled trenches, close to tropical railway lines and even managed to associate a German car dealership with the run by use of the sauwastika, the inverted swastika, alternatively signifying: tantric aspects of Kali; the 7th of 24 spiritual teachers; or the auspicious footprints of the Buddha.

The run could not be said to be one without ample opportunity for refreshment. Drink stops variously included: a puddle; the brown snake; and even a bubbler. Innovation and creativity is not one of JTP's weaknesses!

We also had one wounded soldier (Chunda), who manfully hobbled along the trail to complete the run/walk. There were others who decided that the imminent precipitation should allow them to return early lest the sprinkling of rain melted them (Tail and Smoothride). Then there were those who didn't turn up at all (a list too long to relate, but Vampire and Ryvita be warned. This GM never forgets 😊).

Luckily Snakecharmer had catered with enough bully beef, curried eggs and pasta and other salad for 40, so there were no meagre rations on this auspicious day. Complete with ANZAC biscuits and some Thirsty Hash 22nd Birthday cake, this hasher went home wearied but replete. Great run but pity about the lazy cnuts that failed to appear.

I Don't Want To Be a Soldier

I don't want to be a soldier,
 I don't want to go to war,
 I'd rather stay at home,
 Around the streets to roam,
 And live on the coattails of a New Farm lady.
 I don't want a bayonet in my arsehole,
 I don't want my bollocks shot away,
 I'd rather stay in Brisbane, In warm and rainy Brisbane, To fornicate my bleeding life away.

To fight for the old cnut, fight for the old cnut,
 Fight for the old country

Me no likey Blitish soldiers

Me no like you Blitish soldier,
 Aussie pay fi dollar more
 Aussie call me honey baby
 Blitish call me flucking whore
 Me no like you Blitish soldier
 Aussie pay fi dollar more
 Aussie tap upon the window
 Blitish kick the  door
 Me no like Blitish Soldier
 Aussie pay fi dollar more
 Aussie fluck for just fi minutes,
 Blitish fluck for evermore
 Me no like Blitish Soldier
 Aussie pay fi dollar more

When This Lousy War is Over

(Tune: 'What a friend we have in Jesus')
 When this lousy war is over,
 No more soldiering for me,
 When I get my civvy clothes on,
 Oh, how happy I shall be!
 No more church parades on Sunday,
 No more putting in for leave,
 I shall kiss the sergeant-major,
 How I'll miss him, how he'll grieve.

A soldier I will be

Assole, assole, a soldier I will be Two pissed, two pissed, two pistols on my knee
 For cnut, for cnut, for country and the queen
