HASH TRASH

It is a truth universally acknowledged that the hash trash never lies. What you are about to read either has happened, is happening now, or will happen at some time in the future. Or nearly, anyway.

Run 2311 Irreverence around the Reverends in Ned's Albany Creek oasis

Ned, Albany Creek

Well bless my cotton (and polyester) socks, the Hash Trash is back in its fine form following the GM taking over the photos as well as the writing.

I do like a run around Albany Creek, at least I did until Monday: hills; shiggy; check-backs, it was all going on, and Ned, using his experience, served up a 5.82km run around the quiet but mean streets. The running pack included all the Figjams and a visitor in the form of Why Not, but more about that later. There must have been about 30 hashers(6 real hashers, 20 pretend hashers and 4 lazy p****s) who attended, not knowing that they would be treated to Chilli flavoured with Vanilla Yoghurt. An interesting taste, though not one I would care to experience again.

Twas a balmy evening and the perspiration dripped from the chiselled torso of the GM who, in true Ned fashion, doffed his fetid shirt to experience the cleansing paroxysms of the hose shower. This was only after he dragged his sorry arse back to base only to be abused by ET for not trying hard enough or some s*** like that (but more later).

The circle was quite uproarious, though we did start on a sombre note with the passing of Lilo, a Thirsty Hasher of note (but more later). The comedy dup of the GM and RA were in good form, though not sure about the GM being in good voice. I really have to nail that 'My my my Viagra' song. Chunda felt he'd educate us on the lemon v lime debate (we didn't care as they were free); B1 and Ten Fingers (badly) told some jokes, Heartstarter announced that this weekend's sailing weekend at Kilcoy would go ahead, and the Gm announced that deluge permitting, the Christmas run will take place Chez GM in Cootharaba.

The circle was then encoulee, and off we went to sample Ned's gastronomic creativity. We weren't disappointed, apart from the vanilla yoghurt, but that's a whole other story.

Vale Lilo

Lila, aka Lilo, a Thirsty hasher, departed the mortal coil on Sunday evening. It is always sad, but somewhat inevitable to lose hashers, noting that we're not getting any younger. Lilo inducted Flower into hashing in 1981 (aren't we grateful 😊) and was known for her wit and wisdom. She was a talented graphic artist and was well liked by many hashers. Sic transit gloria mundi.

We're not getting any younger said the hasher at the gate,
With knees just getting sorer and the breathing does abate
He turned to lovely Lila who had recently arrived
From whence have you done my dear, for I had not you just spied
I was on earth just yesterday and then gone in a blink
But my hash friends will remember me she smiled and tried to wink
The pearly gates swung open wide, St. Peter touched a bell
Come on inside Lila my dear you've had your share of hell
