HASH TRASH

It is a truth universally acknowledged that the hash trash never lies. What you are about to read either has happened, is happening now, or will happen at some time in the future. Or nearly, anyway.

Run 2313 Redcliffe Ramble Results in Recklessly Ribald Rantings from Rambunctious RA

Vampire, Redcliffe

The last time we ran from Sutton's beach, it was kind of an out and back, out being a long way up towards Scarborough and then straight back down the beach. In this case, Vampire treated us to a bit of variety, taking us in the opposite direction for a circuitous effort of around 6km.

A pleasant and balmy evening by the seaside with even some sand running were one to be bothered. A decent turn out including many who came straight from the flooded high ground at Kilcoy, with even the accident-prone Overproof, who had another bicycle incident. No, wait, was that Chunda? Either way, same same. Even Country Girl and Generic made an appearance, so the numbers swelled to around 30. Illegally Blonde was also present having returned from the 'conference' in Tassie.

Only 5-6 runners, and a small number of walkers who did the whole walk. The rest must have just got stuck into the beer/ wine early, though I must say I didn't see many letter-boxes, so not sure where they walked to???

The usual mix of spurious charges, specious accusations and unfounded slurs (well, well-founded in the case of the demented Ned, who lost his bag 5 minutes after putting it down) presaged an amusing circle, admirable for its impertinence. This was just the entrée to Vampire's nachos, which, I believe, were high quality as ever.
