

Run 2326b was at 109b Todds Rd, where the b may have been for the Bali stylings of GSpot's haven.

It was t'rific to see returnees Kuntry Girl, Farkarwee and Punch Drunk, plus a guest appearance by WetSpot.

Trail was ran, walked and short-cutted, over-indulgent scores given and duly balanced back to zero by Chunda.

Sing Sling did such a great job of RA he must be looking to cum out of retirement.

Spotty did well to gift wrap the evening's repast in colourful 'Domino' boxes.

Next week's run is in mud courtesy of our favourite palindrome Radar at Nudgee Beech.

I'll let the photos tell the rest of the last Monday's story.

On On, Jake the pencil squeezer.
