HASH TRASH

It is a truth universally acknowledged that the hash trash never lies. What you are about to read either has happened, is happening now, or will happen at some time in the future. Or nearly, anyway.

Run 2395

Hare – Tight Arse

Well with the days getting shorter and the night coming in quicker, it was a very enthusiastic crowd that gathered at Tight Arse's and Purple Bush's hinterland bush retreat, to be subjected to another of Tight Arse's ball breaker runs, and he didn't disappoint either.

We had 20 Hasher's this week, some of them so keen for a run/walk that they were throwing money at me as soon as I walked in.

At 6.30pm, quiet was called for and Tight Arse gave the run instructions. I didn't hear anything as I got a phone call just as quiet was called for. All I managed to hear was Tight Arse saying that he could drive people up the first hill if they wanted. I don't think anyone took him up on the offer though.

The Run

There were six runners tonight and they set off liked startled Gazelle's never to be seen again. The reason why was explained when they got back as Tight Arse had sent them on a marathon. The only reason Chunda didn't throw his torch across the yard when he got back was because he was too busy racing his grandson through the gate.

The run was 9.24 km.

The Walk

There were 10 walkers and we set off after the runners up the first hill called Homestead Court. As this was equivalent to climbing Mt Everest, we never saw the runners again. Up over McKenzie St and down the hill to the park where there was a 50/50 chance of going the right way.

As it turned out, 90% of the walkers went the right way, which turned out to be the wrong way as the trail went off left instead of right. All of a sudden I found myself being in the lead of the walkers.

This was very unfamiliar territory I must say. It wasn't long before that was rectified though, when on a two way check I had no option to take the wrong way and was once again at the back of the pack. Through some drain ways and back into Dayboro, around the tennis courts and back through another park to make our way back home again.

The walk was 5.42 km.

The Circle

The problem of last week with no GM or RA was rectified as both were back to take charge and called the circle to order.

Pounda was called to give the run counts with no notable runs this week other than Sister Sludge having her 21st birthday, I mean run.

Visitors, returning runners and virgins were called to the center – Bitta Relief, Cheesecake, Purple Bush and Sister Sludge were all welcomed back and Champ (grandson of Chunda) was welcomed as a Hash virgin.

Tight Arse was called to the center to answer for his crimes as Hare and Sister Sludge making a return was unfortunately called in as well. It was believed that she had had a hand in setting the marathon as well. Turns out she was just collateral damage and it was a case of guilt by association.

Chunda was asked to give the run report – He said that it was up and up and up around Dayboro as it is definitely not flat around Dayboro, except for right in the middle of town. At 9.24 km long and doing most of the checks and getting them wrong, it was a long day in the office. He gave it a score of -5 out of 10.

Pounda was asked to give the walk report – It was a good walk, very hilly and I managed to get almost every check right. I even found myself out front for a while which was very weird. I'll give it a score of 2 out of 10.

Total of -3 out of 20

The circle was then thrown open to Charges and Awards as below.

Charges	Awards
Champ, B1, FIGJAM and Chunda – charged by Why Not for indulging in way too much competition and mass confusion on the run.	Big Dick – Ryvita had this and gave it to Ten Fingers to pass on. He gave it to Flower for asking Ten Fingers how old he was. Apparently it had nothing to do with him being able to maintain an erection.
Why Not – charged by Bitta Relief for having new shoes at Hash. You think he would know better.	Two Dicks – Ten Fingers had these and gave them to Killer for impersonating Elvis on his latest cruise.
Raw Liver and Bitta Relief – charged by Pounda for running on the walkers trail and stealing the first check that Pounda got wrong.	Grub Shirt – Overproof had this but was missing in action.
FIGJAM and B1 – charged by Flower for impersonating Stevie Wonder and not being able to find the boat keys in the console where they usually are. Flower had to drive 20km to the boat to find the keys.	The Bone – Chunda has this, or at least he hasn't got it back from the AGPU yet.
Tight Arse – charged by Jake the Peg for not putting the correct arrows down after a check. It was reversed as Jake the Peg was the only one that got lost.	The Walking Stick – Sex Change had and was missing in action.

Champ – charged by FIGJAM with a bonus drink for telling Chunda to “hurry up ya old bastard”.
Jake the Peg – charged by B1 for not using his balls and calling an On On like a dog that has lost his balls.
Ten Fingers - charged by Why Not for not having his GM down down mug.
No jokes were told this week however B1 was called in for beverage spillage in the circle.

Next Week's run – Run No. 2396 - 15 Apr 24.
