HASH TRASH

It is a truth universally acknowledged that the hash trash never lies. What you are about to read either has happened, is happening now, or will happen at some time in the future. Or nearly, anyway.

Run 2397

Hare's – Heart Starter & Overproof

Well they came out in force for this week's run. Was it because the area for the run was nice and flat, was it the hospitality of the Hare's, or was it that they came to see the amazing waterfall that Overproof had created. Whatever it was it attracted 24 hardy Hasher's this week with everyone keen to get out on the trail.

At 6.30pm, everyone was sent out the front for Overproof to give the run instructions. I didn't actually hear what he said as I was busy sorting out the finances. Anyway it was off to the left and on trail.

The Run

There were 5 runners this week and they were sent off on a quick loop before catching back up to the walkers. Along Dohles Rocks Road for a while before turning left onto Gallipoli Way and onto the train station. The trail didn't actually go to the train station, however when you miss the arrows it does. Around a few more back streets before ending up at home again.

The run was 7.28 km.

The Walk

The rest went off on the same trail as the runners with a few less loops. We got caught with missing the same arrows that the runners missed and then we all got caught with the false trail thanks to Chunda. Eventually everyone made it back safe and sound.

The walk was 5.45 km.

The Circle

The circle was called and with the RA missing, the GM appointed a standing RA in Killer.

Pounda was called to give the run counts with no notable runs this week.

We had two virgins this week – Bec and Daniel (friends of Heart Starter and Overproof).

We had one returnee this week – Overproof. Apparently he has been at work.

Heart Starter and Overproof were then called to the center to face the music.

B1 was asked to give the run report – He said that it was absolutely brilliant, short, sharp and shiney. There were lots of arrows until there weren't any. He gave it a score of 2 out of 10.

Flower was asked to give the walk report – She said it was pretty flat and that was comfortable and not too bad to do. She gave it a score of 10 out of 10.

Corn Cob was asked to give the security report – He said they had some entertainment with some possums running around but it was all good. No score was given.

Total of 12 out of 20

The circle was thrown open to Charges and Awards as below.

Charges	Awards
Overproof – charged by FIGJAM for bullshitting that he spilt only 15 L of water, but that didn't explain the 35 L of water spread out of 3 tubs.	Big Dick – Pounda had this and gave it to Chunda for being a dickhead and going to the door when he picked Cheesecake up and getting a lecture from Cheesecake's wife.
Overproof – charged by Heart Starter for trying to create a waterfall in the kitchen. He turned the tap on to fill a 15 L container and then walked away to do something else and forgot that he left the tap on.	Two Dicks – Killer had these and gave them to Chunda for falling over on the run. Only 20m from the finish too.
Overproof – charged by Jake the Peg for putting a Tun beer in the fridge. It is a beer that should never be put in any fridge. EVER	Grub Shirt – Overproof had this and gave it to Flower for parking on his new grass.
Heart Starter – charged by Chunda for witches hat abuse and trying to take out an RBT station, and getting away with it.	The Bone – Chunda has this and decided to keep it for another week.
Raw Liver – charged by Rabbi for getting her ginger beer mixed up with sarsaparilla.	The Walking Stick – Tail had this and gave it to Cheesecake because he is old and fucked. He has now put his hip out to go along with his bung shoulder.
Killer – charged by B1 for dropping his Elvis sunglasses. THANK YOU VERY MUCH
Chunda – charged by Ten Fingers for going around to Ten Fingers and then disappearing when Ten Fingers offered him a Tun beer. I don't blame him for disappearing really.	There was a late charge for B1 from Chunda for leaving some eggs in a turned off fridge. They smelt beautiful.
Overproof - charged by FIGJAM for lack of safety and hiding his Midori amongst his dish detergent.
Chunda – charged by B1 for running like a startled Gazelle our on the run and leaving them all behind.	Little Squirt told a couple of joke's that should never be told again.
