HASH TRASH

It is a truth universally acknowledged that the hash trash never lies. What you are about to read either has happened, is happening now, or will happen at some time in the future. Or nearly, anyway.

Run 2413

Hare – Chunda

Well it was a different story this week, where we finally managed to get out of the Lawnton/Bray Park bubble and headed north over the Pine River to the hustle bustle of Kallangur, in anticipation of another cracking Chunda set run. And that's where the disappointment set in. Unfortunately for our Hare this week, the heavens opened up and it managed to rain for pretty much most of the day, causing our Hare to just say "FUCK IT" and give up on trying to set some trail. For a rainy day/night though, we still managed to get 18 brave Hasher's along which was a mighty fine effort.

At 6.30pm, Chunda called for quiet to give the run/walk instructions. He said he couldn't set a run and to go out and find your own adventure. The runners went off on their own little adventure, while Overproof stepped up and said that he would lead the walkers on a merry trail. Eventually everyone made it back safe and sound after some walkers decided to go and do their own thing and walk a bit further than the main pack.

The Run

We had four runners tonight being FIGJAM, B1, Brown Eye and Little Squirt. They set off on their own made up trail to see what trouble they could get into. They turned left and headed along Sheehan Street and were never seen again until the bucket.

- The run was NFI.

The Walk

The walkers set off on an Overproof led trail to his and Heart Starters place that was up for sale. I think he was trying to get one of the Hasher's to buy it as he started showing some of them through the house (that's what you have an agent for Overproof). Four of the walkers then decided that they couldn't give a rat's arse about buying Overproof and Heart Starter's house, so continued on walking on their own little adventure to rack up some more distance for the walk, eventually making it back home after they received a phone call thing that they were lost.

- The walk was 5 km.

The Circle

The GM was away so the RA took charge and got the circle underway.

Pounda was asked to give the run count with no special runs this week.

We had a few returnee's this week being Heart Starter, Overproof, Brown Eye and 101 Felations.

Chunda was invited into the middle as a Hare that didn't set a run.

Brown Eye was asked to give the run report – She said that there were not many marks on the trail, quite a few falsie's, a pretty sedate run that was dry. No score was given.

Smooth Ride was asked to give the walk report – She said that seen as how we were broke and had no money, we decided that we wouldn't look at the house for sale, so we kept going up past the train station and back on home. It was a dry walk until about the last 300m when it started raining. She gave it a score of 5 out of 10

Total of 5 out of 10

The circle was thrown open to Charges and Awards as below.
