HASH TRASH

It is a truth universally acknowledged that the hash trash never lies. What you are about to read either has happened, is happening now, or will happen at some time in the future. Or nearly, anyway.

Run 2461

Hare – Jake the Peg

It was a cold winters night in mid-June and the hordes had gathered at a little known park buried deep in the dark lands of Strathpine, for a Jake the Peg adventure. And adventure it was, with the sun having already gone down resulting in torches and lights of all sorts being produced to light up the gazebo where we gathered. The cold didn't deter too many and we still managed to get 16 Hashers along to experience some virgin territory.

At 6.30pm, quiet was called and Jake the Peg gave the run and walk instructions. He said that he was a bit disappointed as it was a dry run due to the tide being out. The trail was on the set on chalk and bog roll. With that the pack set off like a bunch of Boxing Day shoppers converging on Westfield to get a bargain price on something that they will probably never use and will just try to sell it on marketplace in 5 years' time.

The Run

There were five runners this week being FIGJAM, Torque Wench, Strong As Shit and Little Squirt and Chunda once he got his torch working. They set off with the walkers but then took a quick left turn to run a bit of a loop before catching back up with and passing the walkers and weren't seen again until the bucket. They were on a very similar trail as the walkers with a few extra bits thrown in for fun.

- The run was 5.55 km.

The Walk

The walkers set off up the path to Learmonth St where they followed that for a bit before taking a right turn and weaving their way through all the back streets of Strathpine. Through some parks and some nature trails before making their way through and open muddy field to link back up with the pathway only to then be sent through the swamp land area next to the river, back up onto the end of Learmonth St again and back to home.

- The walk was 4.5 km

The Circle

The GM got the circle underway and once again had his trusty sidekick the RA there for support.

Pounda was eventually asked to give the run count with no notable runs this week apart from Torque Wench being 21yo and Tail being 1yo. Confusing I know.

There were no returnee's this week.

Jake the Peg was called forward as the Hare to be punished for his sins.

Chunda was asked to give the run report – He said that it was pretty bloody good however it would've been better if the other runners had of run with him bur something happened and they did their own little circuit. Great run in a new area. He gave it a score of 0 out of 10.

Flower was asked to give the walk report – She said that it was scenic walk with hard ground and soft ground, there were footpaths and bitumen and views as well, it was alright. She gave it a score of 10 out of 10.

Vampire was asked to give the short cutters walk report – She said that it was very well marked and she liked the bits where it went off the path and then on the path and then off the path and then on the path again. She gave it a score of 3 out of 10.

Alison was asked to give the security report – She said that it was fantastic with no issues and they got to see a koala. She gave it a score of 1 out of 10.

Total of 14 out of 40

The circle was thrown open to Charges and Awards as below.

Charges	Awards
