HASH TRASH

It is a truth universally acknowledged that the hash trash never lies. What you are about to read either has happened, is happening now, or will happen at some time in the future. Or nearly, anyway.

Hare – Committee – Camping Weekend

It was that time of the year again when the hardest of Hashers decided to pack their camping gear and head for the hills to Blackbutt Showgrounds to celebrate another fine year of Hashing with a weekend away camping, drinking and debauchery.

Day 1

This was Thursday, which saw nine Hashers arrive early to get set up and crack into some early refreshments before it got too busy.

Pounda straight away donned his organizers cap to organize the campsite as he had it all planned out with military precision and quickly noticed that one early comer had set up in the wrong spot. This was rectified the next day as the camper had graciously offered to move to her allocated spot to path the way for Pounda's plan to work.

A few beverages were had and some good conversations were had throughout the night.

Day 2

Friday arrived and the day started with a bite of breakfast before six of the early birds set off on a bike ride from Blackbutt to Yarraman and back via the rail trail.

A couple of Harriette's drove to Yarraman to meet the bike riders for coffee at the Yarraman Bakery.

Instead of coffee and a pie from the bakery, Vanderwho decided the better option was to visit IGA for a one-liter bucket of vanilla ice-cream which he then destroyed before we rode back to Blackbutt.

Back at Blackbutt, it was into the final setup of the central area of the campsite ready for the Hash events to follow and then for Pounda to receive in the rest of the campers and allocate them their camp spots for the weekend.

Then it was off to the pub for dinner which turned out to be very busy, which some Hashers then took the opportunity to go to the RSL Club instead of the pub for dinner and for cheap drinks.

Day 3

Saturday arrived and everyone was raring to go for Hash Day. The day started off with a large contingent of Hasher's heading off on a Pork Chop led bike ride through the back blocks near the Benarkin State Forrest. Once back at Benarkin, the ride split into two with most of the pack heading back to Blackbutt while four daredevils headed off to tackle more trail in the Benarkin State Forrest before rolling back into camp after a 40km ride.

Lunch rolled around and most headed off to the bakery for lunch to get their fill in before the Hash Run/Walk.

Some settled in for a rest before the walk and run started, except for Growler, Pounda and Little Squirt who were sent on a recovery mission to retrieve Strong As Shit's partner Ethan, who broke down on his motorbike on the highway 30kms out of Blackbutt. The rescue was completed, and they arrived back at 3.45pm ready for Hash.

4pm rolled around and it was off on a cheesecake and FIGJAM set trail around Blackbutt which incorporated some sections of the rail trail, the main street of Blackbutt and then through some back streets and back to the start for the circle.

The GM got the circle underway with 33 Hashers in attendance with the usual suspects being put on ice for their misdemeanors.

Pork Chop and Loins were called forward for celebrating 35 years of marriage (you could've got less for murder Loins).

There were many charges given (way too many to list) for numerous things and the ice was used with vigor.

Pounda then ran a lucky door prize event where there were 12 prizes of varying value and usefulness with names being drawn at random and the winner then picked a random envelope which equated to a prize out of the trunk. There was much laughter with some of the prizes.

The circle was then finished and Beat-a-Root served up a feast that was fit for a king with chili con carne and chicken and veggies on rice followed by fruit salad and ice cream, butterscotch self-saucing pudding and fruitcake with hot custard.

There were many more refreshments had into the night with Growler playing DJ and the dance floor was rocking into the night.

Day 4

Sunday arrived and there were sore heads in the morning.

Breakfast was cooked by Chunda, Cheesecake, Heart Starter and Beat-a-Root with bacon, sausages, eggs, baked beans, spaghetti and toast on the menu.

After breakfast there was another bike ride led by Pork Chop, this time exploring the trails around the Googa State Forrest and coming back via the rail trail that comes back from Yarraman.

There was a bit of carnage on the bike ride with Strong As Shit performing a spectacular over the handlebars dismount causing some gravel rash to her knee.

Then on the way back, Floater didn't want to be out done by Strong As Shit, so when he stopped to take a photo of something, he managed to fall over his own bike and slice his calf open with one of the pedals on his bike. He then raised eyebrows by going directly to the Blackbutt Bakery for a pie instead of getting his injuries looked at.

The day was finished off with most Hasher's that decided to stay an extra night heading to the Blackbutt RSL Club to watch the MIGHTY BRISBANE BRONCOS take out both the women's and men's grand finals in the NRL. Many beers were had, and a great night was had by all.

Day 5

The morning came and a few sore heads surfaced from campers to have some breakfast and start the process of packing up their campsites to head home.

A fantastic weekend was had by all that attended and a great job was done by all that had helped with the planning and the success of the weekend.

ON ON to next year.
