HASH TRASH

It is a truth universally acknowledged that the hash trash never lies. What you are about to read either has happened, is happening now, or will happen at some time in the future. Or nearly, anyway.

Run 2514 - Sandgate

Hare – Structure Fucker

Welcome to our new Hashers 'Google Maps' formerly known as Atlas & 'Toad' formerly known as Seth!!! Now we'll always have a toad count of 1!

Last weeks trash was lengthy enough so this week we can have some fun with the details..

Our new R.A. Strong as Shit donned the dubbing robes & sword, and, after deliberating for a minute or two, she decided to let them both keep their heads while she touched them on the shoulders. It was a bit dicey for a second though, as she tripped over the long robes & had to hold them up like she was in fact, a medieval monk. Also in the spirit of medieval monks, she was holding the holy cider with which to drench them in.

Thus our newly dubbed official Hash House Harriers were given a rousing song to welcome them in & had several alcoholic beverages tipped over their heads by everyone else. It was only afterwards that Feels realised she had lent her jacket to Toad & the wail of despair was one to behold...

This week, we were off to Sandgate & the R.A. obviously used up all her goodwill with the powers that be because it rained the whole way! There were 4 runners, 2 walkers & an assorted motley crew of short walkers & security blankets. One image that comes to mind is of Torque Wench setting off on the run with an umbrella overhead & Princess finally manning up & going for a run in the rain, I think she must have stolen it from him....

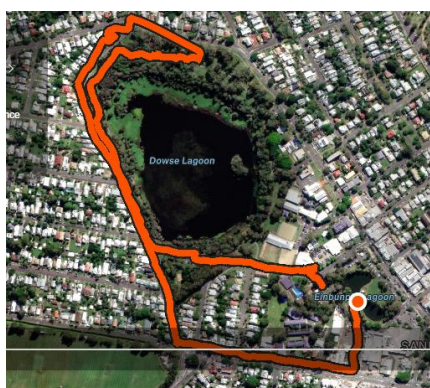

Anyway, still in the laundry cleaning this jacket... On, on, Feels (CanIHaveAFeel)

The Run

There were 4 runners: Figgy, Princess, Strong As, Torque Wench

The runners set off in the rain with Torque Wench holding an umbrella aloft (yep, I really think she stole it from Princess) making their way past the pub towards the Dowse Lagoon. Turning right for a lap around the lagoon, then going down a hill they usually go up & confusing the hell out of themselves, they eventually dodged toads & dickheads attempting burnouts to find themselves watching Princess head into Maccas for an icecream. Emerging victorious with the goods, it was time to head home.

The run was a bit over 4 km

The Walk

A small group took off from Imabumpkin Lagoon but soon divided as the pub showed up early! After a brief debate about whether it was too early to get out of the weather the group split. In the end, one group did a short walk that went god knows where, while The Hare & Feels ended up doing the proper walk. (See map) Did any of us go to the pub in the end? To my eternal shame, no.

There were a few toads that Feels missed & probably the same dickhead doing burnouts that went passed a few times. All in all, a rainy walk around the park.

The walk was 3.0 km

The Circle

The G.M., FIGJAM, circled up 16 wet hashers

Run Number: Ten Fingers 2517 so close!, Princess 2513, Channel Marker says she's a bit useless, Smoothie guesses 2515, again, so close! Everyone else chants 2514. G.M gets everyone to repeat it in case they are as deaf as he is.

Run Count: CanIHaveAFeel turns 50! Structure Fucker has perfect weather for his triple duck (333) there are 16 hashers in total.

Toad Count: Quite a few were missed so they have gone back to the swamp, & Toad was nowhere to be seen.

Returnees: Princess, probably a couple of others, no-one cared where they've been, so we had a drink & chugged along.

Run report: Princess said the run was fast & wet, they went down a hill they normally go up but when they got to the bottom they had to go up again. He led the hashers a merry dance around an extra block after misinterpreting an arrow... that's 2 weeks in a row!

Run Score: Gives it 1/10

Walk Report: Feels ummed & ahed a bit, decided it was wet but she had her umbrella ready, it was flat, she tried to kick a toad or 2 but completely missed & was lucky not to fall on her arse, it was a different trail than one's she's been on before & had entertainment with the dickhead flogging his car.

Walk Score: 2/10

Short Walk Report: Flower enthusiastically extols the virtues of the short walk with 'splendid' & 'just wonderful', she kept the umbrella up the whole time & loved that it was flat.

Short Walk Score: 1 /10

Total Score: 4/30

The circle was opened to level Charges at Sinners & present Awards for misdemeanors

Sinners & Charges	Awards
Ground Sheet by G.M 'Who the fuck is Cameron?' Get in the circle.	Big Dick – Google Maps is still enjoying the big dick
Strong As outs Princess as a sinner for interpreting the direction of arrows a little too literally & making them run up another hill... unnecessarily. Don't make it 3 weeks in a row!	Two Dicks – Road Kill hands over the dicks to Strong As for forgetting the religious robes, she left them at his place after the 'naming'. Calls for the R.A. to be sacked were challenged because no-one told her to actually take the robes home. Said we'd put it in writing in the trash.
Torque Wench addresses the G.M. & decrepit guests to charge Princess with wanting to be a mermaid instead of a princess. After jumping in puddles all day at school, he then took them on an unnecessary loop & jumped in all the puddles on the run.	Grub Shirt – Cheesecake is taking the time to add moooooooooore cheese to the grub shirt, peeyewwwww!
Little Squirt charges Channel Marker with something about a picture she gave him & fairy floss... sounds a bit kinky but there's all sorts at Hash! We accepted that she wasn't wearing a Hash shirt.	The Bone – Toad still has this as he has been practicing swinging his baton in practice for his new job at the prison...
Corn Cob , charges Road Kill & Ten Fingers , with not using the zebra crossing to cross the road. They retort 'that wasn't where the arrow was!' Figgy chimes in with avoid zebra crossings at all costs because that's where those kids on scooters etc knock you over.	The Walking Stick – Singapore Sling & E.T were being 'Princess's & didn't want to run in the rain...
Ten charges Smooth Ride with training at Hash, that's not what we do here! He arrived at Hash to see Smoothie power walking up & down. She admits she is training for the vets walk so the relevant authorities nod their heads wisely & invite both of them to have a drink.	The Dummies – Toad has kept these to suck on after he whacks himself in the shin & other places while swinging the bone around FIGJAM (G.M.) asks if Structure Fucker (Hare) has been spending too much time with the Americans & was leaving messages on the trail. Struckers just waits to see where this is going. Figgy thought at the bottom of the hill that he was sending a message since they normally run up that hill, not go all the way down & then up again! Called him a turd (referencing our recent visitor from the U.S.)
