HASH TRASH

It is a truth universally acknowledged that the hash trash never lies. What you are about to read either has happened, is happening now, or will happen at some time in the future. Or nearly, anyway.

Run 2516 – Everton Park

Hare – Bitta Relief

Off to Everton Park this week & the shenanigans were a little unhinged with a cohort of the elder generation who should know better, getting busted straight up by the G.M. for wearing hats in the circle. Speaking of hats – Corn Cob made his century & scored his bucket hat! There was an interesting debate about which way it went on & a bit of wrestling involved.

The G.M. himself was sucessfully charged *gasp!*, we had a formal ceremonial anointing of the new Hash Elder, Chunda, & we managed to drag everyone together for a hash family photo to send to Pounda. I gotta say, it gets funnier the longer I look at it.

I've been in hibernation (working & drinking & working & on holidays & drinking & working). I'm on the catching up with trashes warpath today so check your inboxes & any mistakes will probably be fixed in the next edition... maybe...

Anyway, On, on, Feels (CanIHaveAFeel)

The Run

There were 6 runners this week: Chunda, FIGJAM, Google Maps, Princess, Strong As Shit & Toad.

Starting from the base in Teralba Park, the runners were sent down along Kedron Brook until they did a loop around Griffith St to come back to the paths along the river. Lucky Singapore & E.T. were back at base or Singapore would definitely be in the drink!

Taking a long line on the pathways they eventually passed close to base before catching on to the walkers trail for the extended route home.

The run was a long 7.3 km

4.30km Walk

Monday, June 1 at 18:31

The Walk

The walk... no hills she said! & at first, we believed her until we came to just a gentle upward incline that went foreverrrrrrrrrrrrr. We went on a hunt for loo paper across the park, back tracked a time or two, took a wrong turn here & there & found our way through the checkbacks but ended up on the trail again.

After a wander through the suburban streets & with Struckers trying to pat any dogs that crossed our way (& almost getting slaughtered by a puppy that wanted nothing to do with him) we had a lovely chat as we followed the arrows back to the park & was a last trudge over the grass and back to home.

The walk was 4.3 km

The Circle

Another round of 'why are we waiting' & we all know that the answer is that the G.M. hasn't called the circle. Little Squirt came up with an extra verse which prompted the question of exactly how many dicks did this dickhead possess? Like an echidna, it seems the answer tonight is 4.

Once the circle was called, the hungry & cold hashers gathered round for their weekly serving of insults & hilarity, only to have Road Kill, Smoothie, Sherbert, Ten Fingers & Tail commanded to attend the center by the G.M. & asked what was the common denominator... deafness & general imbecility were suggested but the true crime was... wearing hats in the circle. A drink & a song, get the fuck out of the circle...

Run Number: Tail - 2 thousand, 4 hundred.... R.A. asks 'are you sure?' 2518!! G.M. No. Toad - 'Fuck! 2519' Noooo. Ten Fingers - 2520. No. Channel Marker 2516! Yayyy!!! (Feels quickly checks the title of this trash to double check 😊 Yay again!)

Run Count: 23 expletive spewing hashers rocked up in the suburban jungle of Everton Hills. Significant achievements include Corn Cob reaching 100 runs & Torque Wench arriving at 69.

Corn Cob 100 run hat presentation with obligatory argument about if the name goes at the front or back

Hare: Bitta Relief

Run report: Toad – Well besides the never ending 'incline', there were lots of random people (R.A interjects 'athletes'), I think we scared them... it was pretty good!

Run Score: Gives it 2/10

Walk Report: Torque Wench – walked as she has a medical injury (mole taken out), not a psychological one (lucky escape with Feels as her mother 😊) It was pretty good, crossed some bridges, didn't come across any obscure creatures... Structure Fucker nearly got murdered by a dog, it didn't want to be his friend.

Walk Score: 4/10

Short Walk Report: Singapore Sling walked around the table & never lost sight of the table. He walked all by himself & completed a whole lap!!

Short Walk Score: 1 /10 Huzzah! How long did it take him? Oh, half an hour!

Total Score: 7/30

The circle was opened to level Charges at Sinners & present Awards for misdemeanors

| G.M. asks Bitta why are there x's on the trail... another house's Hash lore says that 1,2 & 3 'x' show you're getting closer to home. Another says that the 4 th x means there's a xxxx beer waiting at home. Figgy asks where is his xxxx, Bitta reckons all beers are the same so she doesn't have a xxxx or give a xxxx so she drinks her drink.                                                                 | Big Dick – Princess to Squirt for someone who doesn't walk or run he has a lot of requirements                                         |
| R.A's Sinner – Princess for the last 2 weeks he's led them astray, this time he is out of character & went the right way.Also, has anyone seen his knees? Slightly bloody, evidence in pics, 'carpet burn' yells the peanut gallery.                                                                                                                                                                                   | Two Dicks – Squirt to Toad for jumping up & down & whinging about being cold                                                           |
| Torque Wench levels 'pointing with index fingers' charges at Google Maps, Princess, Little Squirt & she can't remember who else. Squirt informs us that he uses his elbows for pointing at people & fingers for pointing at objects & that's why Torque Wench got the finger. Build a bonfire...                                                                                                                               | Grub Shirt – Cheesecake it's keeping us all in Cheesy's thoughts, poor sod.                                                            |
| CanIHaveAFeel asks the R.A. for permission to charge MAJGIF ... permission granted... FIGJAM spelt backwards is MAJGIF & behaving like the anti-christ, turned wine into water at the meeting yesterday by serving de-alcoholised wine... MAJGIF attempted to say, well we don't know what, because he was reminded by several hashers of his own rule of no talking in the circle, drink your drink & get out. Piss on him... | The Bone – Toad gives to Chunda for saving him from being squashed by a car                                                     |
| Corn Cob charges the walkers as they didn't follow the trail, 'buulllshiiiiit...' all walkers in the middle, Tail feels victimized, Feels is in for the bonus drink.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | The Walking Stick – Figgy keeping for another week                                                                                     |
| Struckers drags the walkers back in except himself & Feels, for singing in the circle. Fuuucckkk hhhiiiiimm, drink it down                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | The Dummies – Toad                                                                                                                     |
