HASH TRASH

It is a truth universally acknowledged that the hash trash never lies. What you are about to read either has happened, is happening now, or will happen at some time in the future. Or nearly, anyway.

Run 2525 - Caboolture

Hare – 'Princess' cough Torque Wench

Well, well, well... Look who's decided to make an appearance!

Many rivers to cross... this was a fabulous run if you were in the mood for it, & most hashers were definitely in the mood. The mastermind, Princess, decided to take us through the dodgiest areas of Cabo & with drug deals & spicy disco lights going on (yes, those red & blue ones again), it did not disappoint.

Being stuck at school & forgetting that everyone else has lives too, he delegated setting the actual run to Torque Wench, who, though she had uni & assignments, stepped up magnificently to the task, especially by finding a sneaky unmarked bridge to get everyone back across the river just before they had to hike an extra 2 km up to the golf club & face the fury of the unicorn, as uninvited guests, traipsing across the 'hallowed' greens (he's Captain & is biased).

Family fiascos aside, (Feels feels that the 5.6 km distance around the golf course would be ideal for a Hash adventure, but has been very firmly denied 😞) everyone made it home, & was fed, & had a laugh, & had some drinks, & no-one actually got arrested, & sang some ridiculous songs, & it wasn't a 3.5 km sprint to the bar (there wasn't a drink stop). Until the next adventure...

On, on, Feels

The Run

The run took in all aspects of Cabo life. Starting at the Centennial Lakes & heading into Cabo South. Heading past B-Minus' workplace & down the Morayfield strip before heading into the druglords lair where at least 2 deals were witnessed but since we're not narks we let them be & kept running, we could hear the sirens & figured they could all sort themselves out.

A long loop around some virgin territory before heading into the bush where I believe someone may have come a cropper & slid down a dirt bank & someone else's blood was spilled over a median strip that was inconveniently stuck in front of an arrow (sorry on the Hares behalf!). Lesson learned. Just as we were giving up hope of crossing the river before doubling back, a magic bouncy bridge appeared.

Oh. Then heartbreak hill... we were sooooo close to getting back to base when the machiavellian mind of the Hare took us straight past the easy way back, straight past the next easy way back, oh my goood, still going uphill before hooking along the arse end of the park & FINALLY winding back to the booze. Sheesh.

The run was 5 kms, give or take, said the Hare, the G.M. clocked 5.77 & the Hash Elda clocked up 6.43 with all the wrong checks he took. Serve him right for being a front running bastard!

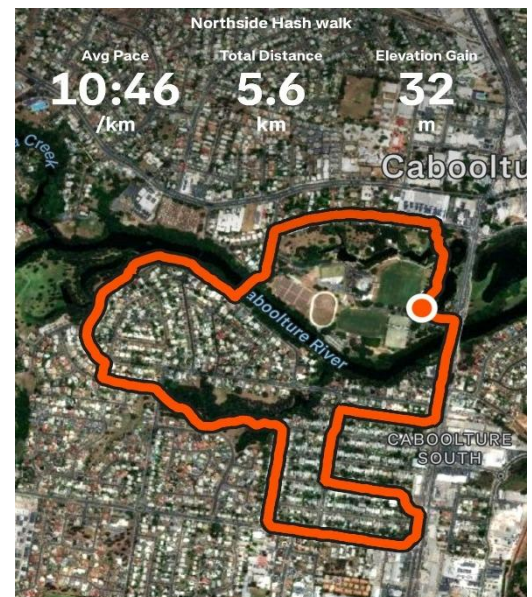

The Walk

Stripping in the Cabo carpark (always a good start, right?), hoiking on the shoes & actually attempting to run to catch up with the walkers... only to catch the short walkers who had already decided that south of the river was verboten even though they all live in the deeeeeep south... so I ran a little more to catch up with some cheeky Bribie Hashers who had decided to crash the party. Lovely to meet them but Cheesy & Chunda & Figgy were just ahead & waiting at the traffic lights which Chunda then decided to cross on the red (CHARGE!).

Missing the opportunity to drop in on B-Minus' workplace since the slacker wasn't actually working, the Hares cruelly took us past Feels fave Chinese that wasn't open because it's MONDAY! Arseholes.

Quite a bit of bush, lots of new territory, Feels certainly didn't know Cabo had an arboreum...or a bouncy bridge! New things every time...

The walk was 5.7 km

The Circle

The G.M., FIGJAM, calls the circle, Cheesy gets protective of the sacred silence of the circle & shushes the chatterers...

Run Number: Chunda confidently pronounces that it is 2525 & he's right! Which properly miffs the G.M. & gives everyone a chuckle. Go Chunda!

Run Count: 18 or so Hashers rocked up, Figgy is on 457. Figgy 'brrrrmm, brrmm', Tail 'Huh? You mean Magnum... BANG!' Flower is on 599!! & oh wait, she forgot Google Maps!!

Hare: Princess/Torque Wench

Toad Count: no toads, just Toad & a lot of eels & turtles.

Visitors: From Bribie Hash -

Run report: Little Squirt - Well that was fucking brilliant! Arrows were big, well set, yep a brilliant run! Except he gave blood...

Run Score: Gives it 2/10

Walk Report: Dog reckons it was really well set, it was in virgin country, though the calibration was a bit fucked up, gives it minus 3.

Walk Score: -3/10

Short Walk Report: Illegally Blonde, arrows were good, they were under the lights so we could see them.

Short Walk Score: -1/10

Total Score: -2/30

The spicy lights & sirens made an appearance just to show off...
